

How to Report Specific Suspected FIFA™ Counterfeits

DEPENDING ON WHAT KIND OF COUNTERFEIT YOU MAY HAVE ENCOUNTERED, DIFFERENT AUTHORITIES AND AGENCIES MAY HANDLE THE COMPLAINTS:

1 Counterfeit Merchandise & Gear

National Intellectual Property Rights Coordination Center (US IPR Center): IPR Center's Operation Team Player program: <https://www.iprcenter.gov/opteamplayer>

Online Scams: Report the suspected fraudulent e-commerce store or counterfeit goods: <https://www.iprcenter.gov/referral/report-ip-theft-form>

Large-Scale/Imports: Suspected large-scale importation or distribution of counterfeit goods can be reported to U.S Customs and Border Protection (CBP): Home - TVR

2 Fake Websites & Ticket Scams

Fake Websites and counterfeit tickets are being actively monitored by law enforcement and consumer protection agencies.

Legitimate Sellers: Be assured you are working with FIFA: <https://www.ic3.gov/PSA/2026/PSA260527?utm>

In the United States: Consumers can file a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC): ReportFraud.ftc.gov

3 Reporting to FIFA™ Directly

If you are dealing with potential unauthorized use of the FIFA logo, copyright infringements, or if you have specific evidence of intellectual property abuse, you can contact the brand protection division:

Email: brandprotection@fifa.org

FIFA Reporting Portal: Inside FIFA

Scan the QR code above to learn more

For more information, please contact: STOPfakes@trade.gov